

YOUR BRFC COMMITTEE WOULD LIKE TO KNOW

Are you up to tackling the numbers?

Then there's an opportunity to show it at YOUR Club!

YOUR OPPORTUNITY

TO BE THE NEXT BRFC HONORARY TREASURER

Background: After five seasons in the position of BRFC Honorary Treasurer, Steve Aldridge is stepping down at the upcoming AGM in July.

Opening call: The Club Committee would like to hear from anyone who is interested in tackling the role as soon as possible in preparation for recommendation to fellow members at the AGM.

YOUR ROLE

You will have overall control of the finances of all sections of your Club.

You will be an official officer of the Club and will have the support of the Finance Committee of which you will be a member. The Committee meets on a monthly basis.

You will have the opportunity of putting your own mark on the role through formal reports to monthly committee & to the membership at year end.

YOUR NEXT MOVE

If you think you're strong in the tackle with numbers (or know of someone who is) & would like to go for the try please contact the Club Secretary Alan White on 07813 144764 or at white52white@aol.co.uk

Alternatively, if you would like to find out more about the role contact the current Treasurer Steve Aldridge on 01769 520580 or at acorn.man@which.net
